Report Blood Donation Camp

On 30th January, 2024, a Blood donation camp was organized by our NSS unit, Youth Redcross Society, in collaboration with Mehar Society, through which more than 56 units of blood was donated by students, staff members, ex-students and the people of nearby Sargaon village. Students and the faculty members came forward voluntarily to donate blood. From the teaching community Dr. Alok Chandel (Professor, Economic), Dr. Devendra Kumar Sahoo (Asst. Prof. Political Science) and Ms. Hansa Tiwari (Guest Lecturer, History). From the students community few students like Santosh Dhruw (BA-II), Chandra Kumar (BA-II), Haidar Khan (BA-III), Gourishankar donated their blood.

The purpose to organize a blood donation camp is to motivate students to donate blood and social works. NSS volunteers brought awareness among the students about shortage of blood and why we must donate blood every year, to help the persons requiring blood. Blood donation can save lives of innumerable persons. Donation of blood is very critical and crucial for saving lives of many patients and those who have met with accidents. It is as such a great service or contribution to the society and people living in it.
